

THE HUMOUR FOUNDATION PRIVACY POLICY

The Humour Foundation respects and is committed to protecting your privacy. The personal information you provide will remain private and will only be used for the purposes outlined. We will not share, sell, lend or rent your personal information to be used by outside parties without your explicit permission.

We will act fairly and honestly in all our supporter transactions. We will only collect information through lawful means and will not pass on any information to a third party unless required to do so for public safety and law enforcement or financial transactions. Any information will only be used in-house to provide better service to our supporters.

We will adhere to the Privacy Act 1988, including the National Privacy Principles, when we collect, use, disclose, store, provide access to or otherwise deal with your personal information. For further information please contact:
